

Amazing Grace

Bible Study Fellowship

The Cost of Salvation

J. Michael Schroeder

Amazing Grace Bible Study Fellowship is a non-denominational church fellowship dedicated to the publishing of the Gospel of Christ (Romans 1:16), and the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery of Romans 16:25 and Ephesians 3:3. Our goal is to study the Bible in accordance with 2 Timothy 2:15, in order to become established in the truth of it according to Romans 1:11; to the end that we might come into conformity with the will of God for our lives according to Romans 12:3.

Amazing Grace Bible Study Fellowship
Mike Schroeder, Pastor/Teacher
P.O. Box 270805 Corpus Christi, Texas 78413
Ph./Fax: 361-986-1261

www.agbsf.com

Amazing Grace

Bible Study Fellowship

The Cost of Salvation

J. Michael Schroeder

Amazing Grace Bible Study Fellowship is a non-denominational church fellowship dedicated to the publishing of the Gospel of Christ (Romans 1:16), and the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery of Romans 16:25 and Ephesians 3:3. Our goal is to study the Bible in accordance with 2 Timothy 2:15, in order to become established in the truth of it according to Romans 1:11; to the end that we might come into conformity with the will of God for our lives according to Romans 12:3.

Amazing Grace Bible Study Fellowship
Mike Schroeder, Pastor/Teacher
P.O. Box 270805 Corpus Christi, Texas 78413
Ph./Fax: 361-986-1261

www.agbsf.com

The Cost of Salvation

There is a maxim in economics that says: “there ain’t no such thing as a free lunch,” or “TANSTAFL.” In other words, even if you got it without paying for it, someone, somewhere, at some point in time had to pay for it.

This may be true of the world, Christians often say, but there is something God offers the world for free—without cost: salvation. This, they say, is proven by the following passages of Scripture:

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast” Eph. 2:8,9

“Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.” Rom 5:18

1

The Cost of Salvation

There is a maxim in economics that says: “there ain’t no such thing as a free lunch,” or “TANSTAFL.” In other words, even if you got it without paying for it, someone, somewhere, at some point in time had to pay for it.

This may be true of the world, Christians often say, but there is something God offers the world for free—without cost: salvation. This, they say, is proven by the following passages of Scripture:

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast” Eph. 2:8,9

“Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.” Rom 5:18

1

It is clear from these verses that God now offers salvation to mankind free of charge. That’s right, no one has to pay anything for it, or do something to attain it other than simply receive it as one would receive any gift; with gratitude and thanksgiving.

On the contrary, it was very costly, for God gave his only begotten Son, Jesus Christ¹, as a sacrifice for sin², “a ransom for all,”³ in order that He could freely offer salvation to all. Indeed, it says that we, those of us who have accepted God’s offer of salvation as a free gift, “are bought with a price, therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s,”⁴

Mike Schroeder

2

It is clear from these verses that God now offers salvation to mankind free of charge. That’s right, no one has to pay anything for it, or do something to attain it other than simply receive it as one would receive any gift; with gratitude and thanksgiving.

On the contrary, it was very costly, for God gave his only begotten Son, Jesus Christ¹, as a sacrifice for sin², “a ransom for all,”³ in order that He could freely offer salvation to all. Indeed, it says that we, those of us who have accepted God’s offer of salvation as a free gift, “are bought with a price, therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s,”⁴

Mike Schroeder

2

